FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Markel Insurance Company and CampDoc.com Join Forces to Reduce Risk for Campers and Staff at Camps

Richmond, VA, February 2, 2012 — Markel Insurance Company, a leading insurer of camps, announced an expansion of their safety resource offerings to include access to a comprehensive web-based health management system at a discounted introductory rate to camp policyholders. Designed specifically for camps by CampDoc LLC, the system helps camps improve safety, reduce risk, and provide the best possible care to their campers and staff.

Markel camp policyholders will have access to the CampDoc.com Health Form, Medication Management, and Health Log to help reduce risk, improve efficiency, and maximize safety at their camp. Both Markel and CampDoc work with a diverse group of traditional resident and day camps, including special needs, medical, adventure, tripping, and sports camps, as well as after-school and summer school programs.

"With the help of CampDoc.com, Markel policyholders will have a centralized, secure online tool in their risk management portfolio to help reduce liability and keep safety in the forefront of camp operations," said Ian Garner, Markel's Director of Camp & Youth Organization Relations. "Reducing risk and helping prevent dangerous medical and medication errors is crucial to ensuring a successful camp season."

"We are very excited that Markel chose us to provide this much needed service," said Dr. Michael Ambrose, Owner and Director of CampDoc LLC. "We're committed to reducing injury and illness. Keeping kids healthy and safe while they're at camp is our ultimate goal."

Markel camp policyholders can connect to CampDoc.com by visiting Markel's Camp Insurance website at campinsurance.com and logging in under Safety Resources.
